NEW! Training Series Opportunity

"Embedding Children's Literature in the Pre-K Curriculum to Develop Instructional Strategies that Count!"
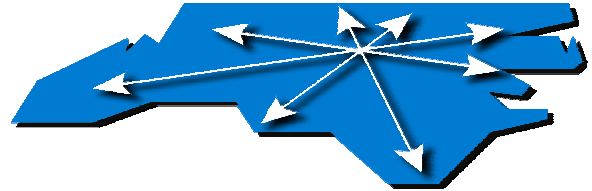

Presented by:
The NC Literacy Connection
Trainers of Project Enlightenment
Striving to Create A Network of Early Literacy Leaders
Funded by the NC General Assembly

The session will

- Present the latest research from the National Reading Conference Dec. 2008, relate that research to making concrete plans for your framework curriculum by using high-quality children's literature for the design, and practice specific strategies that can help narrow the achievement gap!
- Provide a notebook to participants for plans.
- Provide classroom books for participants to take back to their classrooms.
- Provide opportunities for the group to select follow-up technical assistance and training.

EIGHT REGIONAL LOCATIONS

This training is open to all Pre-K Staff, Technical Specialists, Directors, Principals, and Administrators.

Sessions begin at 8:00 and end at 3:00. Due to the economic cuts, lunch is not provided. You may bring your lunch or plan to eat out at a nearby location.

Registration deadline is one week prior to training date. Register by Fax Attention: Mary Ashe at 919.508.0810 or email mashe@wcpss.net Confirmations and directions will be sent. Space is limited! Questions??? Call Mary Ashe at 919.831.3889.

There is no charge for this training. Funding is provided by the NC General Assembly.
Each participant will leave with classroom materials!

I will attend the Literature Strategies that Count Training in (check one)

	Date	Location
_____	Jan. 27	Bertie County DSS, Windsor
_____	Jan. 28	Downeast Partnership for Children, Rocky Mount
_____	Feb. 10	Farmer's Market, Lumberton
_____	Feb. 26	Ashford Suites, High Point
_____	Mar. 10	Stone Center, Wilkes County Schools Central Offices, N. Wilkesboro
_____	Mar. 17	Rader Center, Gaston County Schools, Gastonia
_____	Mar. 18	Crowne Plaza Resort, Asheville
_____	Mar. 26	James Sprunt Community College, Kenansville

Name _____ Position _____

School _____

Address _____

Email _____

Phone (for notification of last minute cancellation in case of inclement weather) _____